TRAILBLAZING

A sepia-toned photograph of a misty forest path. In the foreground, a rustic wooden fence made of vertical posts and horizontal rails runs across the frame. To the left, a large, leafy tree stands prominently. The path leads into the distance, where more trees are visible through the mist. The overall atmosphere is quiet and contemplative.

Every man is a trailblazer at heart. Though most people seldom blaze new trails, they do admire those who catch the vision of the pioneer, who determine with the Psalmist, "Through God we shall do valiantly: for He it is that shall tread down our enemies."

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
FORT WAYNE BIBLE COLLEGE
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

Dedication

Multitudes are waiting for Christian Trailblazers, possessed with the tug of the beyond, who will guide them into the trail of truth.

New horizons of responsibility and a cruel climb of service face surrendered youth . . . whose time, talents, and tears on today's frontier will bring treasure-laden tomorrows.

To YOU who catch the vision of unblazed trails . . . who enter new spheres of accomplishment as God may lead you . . . and who will someday reach that summit of undaunted servitude, we sincerely and prayerfully dedicate the 1953 Light Tower.

S. A. Witmer, L.L.D., Ph.D.
President

Dr. Witmer is also President of the Accrediting Association of Bible Institutes and Bible Colleges. The purpose of the Accrediting Association is to preserve evangelical integrity in Christian schools while striving for the highest academic standards. We appreciate the progress of this recent pioneer endeavor, as Bible College education becomes increasingly advantageous.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, ACCREDITING ASSOCIATION OF BIBLE INSTITUTES AND COLLEGES:

Mr. Terrelle B. Crum, Providence Bible Institute, Secretary; Dr. S. A. Witmer, Fort Wayne Bible College, President of Accrediting Association; D. Thomas Moseley, Nyack Missionary Training Institute; Dr. C. P. Haggard, Pacific Bible College; Dr. W. A. Mierop, Philadelphia Bible Institute; Rev. R. M. Riggs, Educational Department of Assembly of God Schools; Dr. Roger Congdon, Multnomah School of the Bible; Rev. Arthur H. Graves, South-Eastern Bible Institute.

Every Christian youth should look up from present patterns and achievements to new horizons, new possibilities, new conquests. His heart should feel the tug of the legend. His whole personality should be motivated by the daring spirit of the pioneer. The world of need demands extendables. This grand and useful time calls for heroic faith. The heavenly mission bids you to be strong and courageous - as you look up and beyond.

S. A. Witmer

ORGANIZATIONS

Students and faculty at work on "SP" Day.

Vice President Jackie Carl and President Owen Haifley tally the results as the thermometer soars past the $3,000 mark at the Victory Rally.

STUDENT COUNCIL

A vital campus trailblazer, the Student Council leads the way in student government. Their projects included "SP" Day, when students and faculty took work calls to finance a new student lounge. At the close of a Victory Rally that night over $3,000 had been received or pledged. Another project was to sponsor a social evening of "Magic" entertainment with Rev. Waldo Hostetler. The Council arranged a pair of basketball games with Moody Bible Institute, planned chapel programs every two weeks, discussed student problems, and worked toward more diversified college activities.

CONFERENCE

An annual event, this year's Youth Conference broke all previous records of attendance. Styled especially for youth, the wonderful music and unique programming was acclaimed "the finest."

Rev. Dale Cryderman brought profound messages which led to many genuine decisions.

Every student became a member of some committee which made an efficient and spiritual conference.

Definite decisions were made.

Stirring music comes from the Men's Ensemble.

Sunrise Chapel

Sunrise Chapel Staff

"Sunrise Chapel" is broadcast each week day, Monday through Friday, on WKJG in Fort Wayne at 7:30 a.m. It is re-broadcast on twenty-four other stations, most of them weekly, including the Aloha Network in Hawaii and world-wide short-wave station HCJB in Quito, Ecuador.

RADIO

A song in the air . . . a thought-for-the-day . . . food for the soul . . . all combine on radio's magic airwaves to minister to countless listeners who daily hear productions of the Fort Wayne Bible College Broadcasting Service. Radio extends the evangelistic ministry of Fort Wayne Bible College, trains students in accepted radio production procedures, and points other young people to the college as their place of training. Around the microphone, or in the classroom, radio plays an important part in the educational program of the college.

the messiah

THE MESSIAH was presented by a chorus of 150 students and former students, a twenty-five piece orchestra and guest soloists all under the baton of O. E. Steiner, director of the School of Music. A capacity crowd heard the familiar, soul-stirring presentation, heralded as the finest yet given.

Messiah Soloists: Gerald Greenlee, Kankakee, Illinois, tenor; Vivan Buetner, Detroit, Michigan, soprano; Dorothy Lugibihl Lehman, Royal Oak, Michigan, contralto; Franklin L. Lusk, Fort Wayne, Indiana, baritone.

Professor and Mrs. Gerber

A Tribute to Mr. C. A. Gerber

In his forty-two years of unselfish devotion Mr. C. A. Gerber has nobly demonstrated faithful service. He retires this year, having been instructor in voice, theory, and conducting. In past years he has conducted various glee clubs. His youthful vigor and his constant enthusiasm in the ministry to which God called him erect a memory of stalwart personification of Christian trailblazing.

spiritual emphasis

Spiritual Emphasis week is held at the beginning of each semester.

Rev. Don McIntosh, left, pastor of the Methodist Church in Hampstead, Maryland, was a God-directed messenger for the first semester, and Rev. John Whittle, right, of World Evangelization Crusade brought God's message at the beginning of the second semester.

These leaders meet with other students to intercede for those on spiritually-unblazed trails. By remembering a different area each evening, the prayer warriors complete a prayer chain around the world every week.

PREACHING

Preach the word; be instant in season,
out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort,
with all long-suffering and doctrine.
II Timothy 4:2

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they
be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

MOODY vs. F.W.B.C.

Fort Wayne Bible College met Moody Bible Institute in a basketball contest February 27. The game was arranged and sponsored by the Student Council and was played in the Concordia gym. A return match was played in Chicago.

Both teams were selected from intramural teams in both schools.

E. T. Neunschwander coached the Blue and Gold from Fort Wayne, composed of Owen Haifley, Joe Grabill, Noel Grabill, Stan Leonard, Bob Taylor, Charles Williams, Budd Gauger, Don Erickson, Bill Roberts and Leon Gerig.

HEADLINES

by

EDWARD C. KURTZ

Author of

"And Behold the Camels Were Coming"

It is the most convincing presentation of the trustworthiness of Scripture we have ever seen. Every stepping stone of thought is laid by the WORD OF GOD, continuously quoted with expository dexterity. Devotional, expository, prodigious research, staggering contrast, logic, pathos and humor—all are here in fascinating reading. The WORD x-rays and plumbs the depths of things happening, and reads aright the symptoms of the Age. It puts Time's puzzling pieces where God is putting them in the weaving of His resplendent Tapestry.

EDUCATION

THESE HANDS COULD BE YOURS! They are hands of students that have come to Taylor to prepare the "whole man." They are symbolic of lives that have fixed a goal in the future and are assuring themselves every opportunity of success by studying in a fully accredited, liberal arts university, in its 107th year of "Effective Christian Education." Let God train what He has given you in a school where He is honored in all His power.
